VOL. III. NO. 298. CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1897. PRICE, 5 CENTS

JOCKEY CLUB VS. TURF CONGRESS.

There will be no outlaws out of the Turf Congress-Jockey Club episode over the four days extra racing at Pimlico. All moves indicate an agreement between the two bodies and out of the negotiations may come something that the American turf has long needed—reciprocity and cordial relations between those turf organizations. From such relations a national jockey club can well be conceived. The Turf Congress law which caused the present trouble is as follows:

The congress shall not recognize or its members permit any racing in the United States east of the Rocky Mountains and north of latitude 35 degrees during the months of January, February or December of any year; nor shall any racing by electric or other artificial light be recognized or permitted anywhere or at any time of the year. For participating in any such meeting or racing, as prohibited, each member of the congress shall disqualify and thereafter exclude from engagement or participation in any meeting or racing held by it or upon its track every person who shall act in any official capacity or as bookmaker or pool seller, every owner or trainer who shall run any horse, and every jockey who shall ride the same, and every horse that shall run or is owned, trained or under the control of any of the herein above-mentioned persons. And if any Association not a member of this Congress shall permit any of the above disqualified persons or horses to participate in racing on its course then all other horses or persons thereafter participating in its racing shall likewise be disqualified. This rule shall likewise apply to all race tracks upon which such racing takes place or is allowed. Members of the Congress shall not book upon events on disqualified tracks, and those persons and horses in any manner participating in the racing on the tracks thereof, shall be barred all privileges on the tracks of members of the Congress. Any member of the Congress knowingly failing to enforce the provisions of this article shall be expelled.

THE WHITNEY STABLE OF 1898.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—John McCafferty has sent Requital to winter in New Jersey.

The hores purchased by W. C. Whitney in Kentucky last week will be raced next year. It is not known whether they will run in W. C. Whitney's name or that of his son, H. P. Whitney, but it is more than likely that they will run in the name and colors of the latter. W. P. Burch has been engaged to train the lot, and they will winter with the horses in the stable of F. R. & T. Hitchcock, Jr. Burch trains all the horses of the Hitchcocks that run on the flat.

There are about 300 high class sires located in Great Britain for the season now commencing, and among the new sires added are the following, nearly all of whom raced this year: Florisel II, by St. Simon, the property of the Prince of Wales, at the Heath Stud Farm, Newmarket; Worcester. by Saraband, at the same establishment; Blairfinde, (brother to the Derby winner, Galtee More), at Bruree, Limerick; Tanzmeister, by Saraband, at Broome Manor, Swindon; Green Lawn, by Kendal; The Owl, by Wisdom, and Count Schomberg, out of Ragimunde, by Petronel, at Sheffield Lane; Best Man, by Melton, at Bowbury Stud; Bedford and Perigord, by St. Simon; St. Florian, by St. Simon, at Knockarry, Ireland; Whittier, by Laureate, at Meakston Hall, Yorkshire, where is also Dare Devil, by Robert the Devil; Victor Wild, by Albert Victor, at Lordship Farm, and many others, not to mention the Australian sires. Trenton, by Musket, and Carbine's brother Carriage, at Cobham.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Satsuma has the two fastest miles to his credit of any horse in America this year. He has run the Oakland track in 1:39¼, and the Ingleside in 1:40. Jim Coffey, of India Rubber fame, has had wonderful success with this horse.

Marplot is on the ailing list. The colt has not yet done himself justice in any of the California races.

Felix Carr is training the Tenny—Fun colt purchased at the Reed sale in San Francisco.

Caesarian has been placed in training at San Francisco after a long let-up.

Start good. Won ridden out. Pleasanton was not the best, but was best ridden and saved. Took the short route. Jane should have won. She is a jade and was not well managed. Shade was shut off on first turn and generally unlucky. She is unreliable. Hazel D ran a good race. Watch Budd. He closed impressively. Sandow showed some speed.

Scratched—Nervula, 97.

Overweights—Mrs Shade, 3 pounds; Mount Air, 3.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Belvidere—Legacy.

Start straggling. Won easily. In the going Aquinas outclassed his field. He was well ridden. Polish was poorly handled, though lucky and in going to suit him. Myth ran a good race. Was shut off at start and first turn. Though short, he closed strong at end. William O'B beat the barrier and was lucky. He was not among his own kind. Alma ran an impressive race. She was virtually left at the post and eased at end. Emma D was outclassed. She is only a sprinter.

Scratched—Charles A, 105; Fannie E, 115; Harry Thoburn, 110.

He favors hard going. Argentina is a jade, and is only worth consideration when the going is fast or the mud thin. Song & Dance is not a mud runner, no matter what the reports of the past declare.

Winner—Ch. g, 7, by Harry O'Fallon—May Kennedy.

Winner—Br. h, 5, by Hanover—Kittie L.

Off at first break. Start good. Won pulling up; second cleverly; third driving. The mud seemed too stiff for Balk Line. Sligo had the path and was the class of the race. It was an easy ride on Fasig. Tom Elmore ran kindly and a good race. Proverb's game is over the hurdles.

Scratched—Rhett Goode, 99.

Overweights—Tom Elmore, 3 pounds.

3242 FIFTH RACE—1 Mile. Purse $300. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. g, 6. by Leonatus—Glen Mercy.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out. The next three were driving. Dockstader carried Viscount wide on the stretch turn. The distance was a little too much for Viscount. Elyria had the best of the going and ran a fair race. Nicolini and Cochise were both poorly ridden and taken into the worst going.
